DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. Preliminary amendment filed May 29, 2001 is acknowledged. The marked-up version shows claim 7 being amendment. This appears to be a typographical error. It has been considered as showing the marked-up version of amended claim 6.

Drawings

2. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they include the following reference sign(s) not mentioned in the description: "1a", "5b", "3c". A proposed drawing correction, corrected drawings, or amendment to the specification to add the reference sign(s) in the description, are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

3. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the "reset mechanism" (two ribs 3b and the guide curves 5a and stop cam 5f) recited in claims 1, 8, 9 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

5. Claims 1-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. Claim 1 recites "the shut-off (9) can be moved by rotating the cover (1) from one valve position (17, 16) to the other valve position (16, 17)." The specification recites, on page 5 lines 8-10, "two ribs 3b of the bouton 3 intervene with guide curves 5a molded onto the valve body 5. Through this intervention, the button 3 is moved upward with the support of the spring 7. Stops 5e restrict this movement." The specification nor the drawings provide sufficient details to enable one skilled in the art to make and/or use the invention. Additionally, the specification provides no disclosure of the rotation of cover (1) enabling the movement of the valve from position (16) to position (17). Such a movement appears to be accomplished by depressing membrane (2) and button (3).

6. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

7. Claims 1-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claims are generally narrative and indefinite, failing to conform with current U.S. practice. They appear to be a literal translation into English from a foreign document and are replete with grammatical and idiomatic errors.

Claim 1 recites the limitation "the stream" in line 4. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 1 recites the limitation "the retroactive force" in line 5. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 1 recites the limitation "one valve position (19) to another valve position (16)" in lines 6-7. This appears to be a double inclusion of the "first valve position" and the "second valve position" recited in line 5.

Claim 1 recites the limitation "cover" in line 8. This appears to be a double inclusion of the "reset mechanism" recited in line 6.

Claims 1-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being incomplete for omitting essential elements, such omission amounting to a gap between the elements. See MPEP § 2172.01. The omitted elements are: button 3.

Above are examples. Applicant is required to ensure full compliance with 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

8. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 3752

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) do not apply to the examination of this application as the application being examined was not (1) filed on or after November 29, 2000, or (2) voluntarily published under 35 U.S.C. 122(b). Therefore, this application is examined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

9. Claims 1-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Bertrand et al. (6,290,147).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

10. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

11. Claims 1-7 and 10-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Parkison (3,341,132) in view of Mönch (5,145,114).

Parkison discloses a showerhead with an outer casing 16; a valve body 36; a shut-off 38; a spring 42; a cover 24. Parkison does not disclose a membrane. Mönch discloses a membrane 14. It would have been obvious to a person having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have incorporated a membrane to the device of Parkison as taught by Mönch to enclose the shut-off from the environment.

Conclusion

12. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Hayes; Chen; Boesch; Bosio; Knapp; and Yean disclose shower heads having a valve.
